Treasurer's Report

Joanne Schroeder presented the report. We have a balance of $11,480.78 in our checking account and $2,264.09 in the Banner account. We had income of $6,555.50 and expenses of $4,249. Susan Zenter moved and David Schweyer seconded to accept the report. Passed.

Committees

Membership one new member

Bear Lake Days Amanda Harthun reported on her survey. She got lots of good comments. We need to maybe work a little more on the parade organization. We had many suggestions for next year. She will be taking the survey results to the Bear Lake Days committee. The Potato/Pretzel booth did not do well. We had a net profit of $130.83. It should be noted that we had to purchase several supplies that we will have plenty of for next year.

Merchandise We sold out of shirts and the committee will revisit the quantity that they order for next year. We need to be thinking of other items we can sell.

Brochures They have been distributed around town.

BLAH Barb Czarnicki and Gail LaDuke have volunteered to chair.

Signs/Banners

Yard Sale Terri Schmidt reported that the registrations have been out since before Bear Lake Days and the forms are slowly coming in. The record sites is 80 but we usually have about 60.

Correspondence None

Old Business

1. Jackpine said the Domain letter was a scam and to ignore it.
2. 50/50 raffle We sold 650 tickets out of 1,000 We may look into selling that during the golf tournament next year.
3. We officially designated Kris Buckner and Kym Ware to be check signers on our account. Alyssa Waldo took care of signatures.

New Business

1. The Music on the Lake committee contacted Kris Buckner to explore the Promoters sponsoring the event in the future. They have sponsors and they pass a donation bucket. The issue is providing them with some insurance. It is a wonderful event and is widely attended. It was estimated that there were about 52 boats. The next one will be August 25 at 1:00 on the sand bar near the north shore. Cousin Curtis will be performing.
2. We need more events on our website. We will be working on the website now that we have survived Bear Lake Days.
3. There are 230 brochures left. Pauline Jaquish will be taking some to the Bear Lake Market.

Joanne Schroeder moved and Vicki Mackey seconded to adjourn the meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45

Next Meeting September 5, 2018 8 am at Grille 44

Executive Board will meet Tuesday, August 28 at 7:30 a.m.at the Lakeside Café, anyone may attend.

Respectfully Submitted by,
